

RE: NAB Petition 04-160

I am a satisfied listener of Satellite Radio and do not wish the NAB to be successful in its attempt to limit the growth of or services provided by this new technology. The use of the airwaves is a public trust; the NAB has no right to attempt to establish or protect a monopoly on its use of the public property.